

Dear Members of the Archdiocese of St. Louis Catholic School Community,

As we continue to prayerfully discern the future opportunities for evangelization within a renewed landscape of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, Archbishop Rozanski is seeking your input and feedback about Catholic Education.

The Catholic Education Advisory Task Force, comprised of pastors, administrators, teachers, parents, and community members, has developed a survey so we can hear first-hand from your experiences with Catholic Education in the Archdiocese. This survey has been designed to hear from anyone, including former and prospective parents, donors, volunteers, teachers, and parish community members, within the Archdiocese, regardless if they currently have children enrolled in a Catholic School.

The survey will allow you to anonymously share your thoughts about Catholic Education which will provide valuable input to the All Things New strategic pastoral planning initiative. Because the survey is focused on Catholic Education across the Archdiocese of St. Louis, you will not be able to provide feedback about a specific school or parish. This survey is meant to be a first step and allow the Catholic Education Advisory Task Force to gather initial information from you which will allow for future more focused opportunities for input and feedback.

The survey can be taken online at www.surveymonkey.com/r/EDUCATIONSURVEY2022 and will close on Monday, May 2, 2022.

Thank you in advance for your input and support of this important aspect of Catholic life within the Archdiocese. If you have any questions or would like to provide additional input, please contact us at allthingsnew@archstl.org.

Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. Chris Martin
Vicar for Strategic Planning
