

The St. Margaret of Scotland Auction is happening in 2023!

Join SMOS families and supporters for the first ever DragonFest, a night of music, food, and fun at the SLUH commons.

Save the date for Friday, May 19, 2023. General admission ticket sales will go on sale February 1, 2023, don't worry, you won't need to use Ticketmaster.

The SMOS auction is the single largest contributor to our school's operating budget, outside of tuition. Funds raised help to cover teacher's salaries, facility maintenance, textbooks, and supplies. Generous support from our community is the reason why St. Margaret's is able to provide high quality education for our students.

If you, or someone you know, would be interested in becoming an event sponsor, advertiser, or auction item donor, please use the attached donation form. You can contact us at auction@stmargaretstl.org if you have any questions or if you would like more information.
