

A row of green musical notes of various shapes and sizes along the top edge of the page.

5TH GRADE CAROL PARODIES

Four decorative floral sprigs are positioned around the text. Two are on the left side, one at the top and one at the bottom, featuring red flowers and green leaves. Two are on the right side, one at the top and one at the bottom, featuring red flowers and green leaves.

This month in Music class, the 5th graders have learned about “parody” – creating new lyrics to a known melody.

Swipe through to enjoy a creative new twist on some classic Christmas carols!

DECK THE HALL

Deck the halls with Christmas trees
fa la la la la la la la la
Put on twinkle lights to please
fa la la la la la la la la
String the popcorn, make it last!
fa la la la la la la la la
Ornaments – put them on fast!

MARA, 5A

DECK THE HALL

Get excited, Wicked's streaming!
fa la la la la la la la la
My whole family will be screaming
fa la la la la la la la la
Some people are so mean...
fa la la la la la la la la
Just because her skin is green!
fa la la la la la la la la

EWAN, 5K

O CHRISTMAS TREE

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
Why are you still outside?

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
Tomorrow it is Christmas!

We'll put a star on top of you
And inside, you won't look so blue
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
Why are you still outside?

CECELIA S., 5A

O CHRISTMAS TREE

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
You don't deserve your ornaments.

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
I see why you were one dollar.

I bought it from a man
selling trees in a van.

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
You don't deserve your ornaments.

TRIPP, 5K

O CHRISTMAS TREE

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
Why do you look so lonely?

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
I want you to be happy.

Maybe because your lights don't work?

Or do I need to make you smirk?

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
Why do you look so lonely?

NORA, 5K